

STORY OF GUILT

Is Given Indefinite Sentence to Penitentiary.

John J. Brown, age 21, was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years for a burglary and larceny.

Bertha Chase, rooming at 321-23 Sixteenth street, was arraigned before Magistrate D. J. Cleland in police court Monday afternoon on a charge of larceny. The case was continued until Oct. 6, and the defendant released on her own recognizance.

Henry Klueger, arrested Saturday night as a bootlegger at a soft-drink parlor on First avenue and Twentieth street, preferred the complaint, and alleged that the woman had stolen two woolen blankets from the place on or about Aug. 1. The woman asserted that she had purchased the blankets from a former proprietor of the place.

OWN PARTY IS WOMEN'S NEED SAYS LEADER

Mrs. G. M. F. Belmont, Famous Suffragist Worker, Urges Female Organization.

New York, Sept. 23.—Mrs. G. M. F. Belmont, famous suffragist leader, from a sick bed today gave her views on the great suffrage victory the women of America have just achieved.

She took caustic flings at all party leaders and declared that this victory was won by the women of the country, aided by men in general, and rather in spite of their opposition.

"At Point of Gun."

Mrs. Belmont said: "It is because party leaders take this victory as their own. Every genuine friend of suffrage knows that politicians of both parties have only yielded at the point of a gun. The suffragists of America, and they only, are responsible for compelling action by both parties."

"I feel sure that the intelligent women of America will not be led astray by any verbose or sentimental appeals for support made by either national candidate."

LONG VIEW STREET CAR AND BUS AUTO TRUCK IN SMASHUP

A Long View street car was badly damaged Monday afternoon in a collision with an automobile truck of the Vinal & Hansen Auto Truck company of Des Moines.

The collision occurred on Ninth avenue and Twentieth street. The street car was headed west and the auto truck, which was loaded with asphalt for the McCarthy Improvement company jobs in the east bluffs district street paving work, was turning from Twentieth street on to Ninth avenue.

R. Kollenbeck, driver of the truck, and P. Dalton, motorman on the street car, were not hurt. The front end of the street car was crushed in. The truck was not so severely damaged.
